SEAGRASSES OF WEST AFRICA:

Halodule wrightii

A tropical species found in sandy-muddy sediment in sheltered bays. It can be exposed during low tide and submerged in shallow areas.
SEAGRASSES OF WEST AFRICA:

Cymodocea nodosa

A Mediterranean species found in sandy sediment in sheltered bays. It is always submerged in shallow areas.
SEAGRASSES OF WEST AFRICA:

Zostera noltii

A temperate species found in muddy sediment, exposed on intertidal areas.